MEMORANDUM FOR: Mr. R. E. Greenfield, Chief/Security Division, Federal Aviation Agency

REFERENCE : FAA Letter CS-500, dated September 28, 1965, addressed to Mr. Charles Weiss,
Chief/Technical Division, Office of Security, U. S. Department of State

1. Your referenced letter expresses interest in defenses against clandestine listening devices and requests that one of your technical officers attend special subcommittee meetings as an observer. This letter was referred by Mr. Weiss to the Technical Surveillance Countermeasures Committee (TSCC) of the United States Intelligence Board (USIB).
2. Following dissolution some time ago of the old National Security Council Special Committee on Technical Surveillance Countermeasures and its Subcommittee, many of its functions were lodged in TSCC which is a standing committee of USIB. However, membership of the TSCC and its subcommittees is limited to departments and agencies represented on USIB since the activities of the committee lie primarily within the intelligence field.
3. In order to keep informed of the latest countermeasures equipment and techniques currently used by the intelligence community, it is suggested that you consider contacting (among others) Mr. Charles Weiss, Chief/Technical Division, Office of
